Uiltje – the Netherlands

The Uiltje guys are back. Still in Haarlem, but now with their own brewery. And still a bit wacky, with a funny owl mascot, continuing to brew and barrel age crazy and fantastic big beers. Rarely subtle...

Brouwerij Kees - the Netherlands

Kees Bubberman, the Emelisse brewer of fame, has his own brewery! Same philosophy as before – great base beer with barrel variants. And just like Emelisse, Kees is getting great reviews. He is so successful it's a challenge getting his beers. But worth it when available!

American Barley Wine

Lighter than Kees' previous behemoths, this barley wine is still big and full, and also worthy of cellaring. Malting and sweet when young, there are a multitude of flavors including rich caramel, oranges, ripe fruit, and vanilla.

Ratebeer 98. ABV is 11.5%. Available in 330ml cans, case of 24.

Project 18.11

Ratebeer 84. ABV is 9%. Available in 330ml cans, case of 24.

Amager - Denmark

Amager is a small Danish craft brewer noted for incredible and sometimes zany beers, ranging from hoppy West Coast IPAs, to big thick stouts. Several great collaborations with other European and US breweries are regularly produced. Started by brewers Morten Valentin Lundsbaek and Jacob Storm in 2007, a full brewery opened just outside Copenhagen on the island of Amager in 2011.

Hr. Frederiksen

Named after a friend of the brewery this beer is pitch-black and full-bodied with lots of dry roasted malt, dark berries, and sweet dark chocolate. Here's what the guys say: "...this beer is an Imperial Stout that is said to resemble its namesake's "pitch-black humor" and powerful personality. Modeled after an American style, it is dense and creamy, with a light brown head that leaves a delicate lace in the glass." Eight different malts are used for color and texture, and Centennial hops balance the roasty bitterness, while adding floral, fruity aromas.

Ratebeer 100. ABV of 10.5%. Available in 330 ml bottles, case of 24
