Amager - Denmark

Amager is a small Danish craft brewer noted for incredible and sometimes zany beers, ranging from hoppy West Coast IPAs, to big thick stouts. Several great collaborations with other European and US breweries are regularly produced. Started by brewers Morten Valentin Lundsbaek and Jacob Storm in 2007, a full brewery opened just outside Copenhagen on the island of Amager in 2011.

Hr. Frederiksen

Named after a friend of the brewery this beer is pitch-black and full-bodied with lots of dry roasted malt, dark berries, and sweet dark chocolate. Here's what the guys say: "...this beer is an Imperial Stout that is said to resemble its namesake's "pitch-black humor" and powerful personality. Modeled after an American style, it is dense and creamy, with a light brown head that leaves a delicate lace in the glass." Eight different malts are used for color and texture, and Centennial hops balance the roasty bitterness, while adding floral, fruity aromas.

Ratebeer 100. ABV of 10.5%. Available in 330 ml bottles, case of 24

The Sinner Series - Pride

Part of a series of seven sins/beers, it's the Russian Imperial Stout. From the boys: "We thought about this for a long time: what kinda beer would give us the utmost feeling of pride in The Sinner Series? Well, if you know Amager Bryghus you already know that Imperial Stouts have a special place in our hearts. So 'Pride' simply had to be an Imperial Stout. What is special about this take on the style is that we boiled the h... out of it. Actually we boiled it for 6 hours, making for a richer and fuller version. We would never dare calling this the perfect Imperial Stout – that would be taking pride way too close to hubris!" A tasty brew with aromas of milk chocolate, roasted malts, and coffee. Initial flavors of fruit and sweet chocolate, followed by bitter dark chocolate.

Ratebeer 98. ABV is 10%. Available in 500ml bottles, case of 12.

Double Black Mash

Just as it sounds - a double mashed stout. Intense, thick black, luscious and full-bodied with notes of dried fruit and finishing nice and warm. From the brewer: Take a good thing and make it even better – that's the philosophy behind Double Black Mash. This huge Imperial Stout was easily big and potent enough after the first mashing, but we thought what the heck let's give it another spin. So we mashed it in a second time doubling everything that was already good while aiming for great. All grain, heavy duty, and no nonsense.

Ratebeer 99. ABV is 12%. Available in 330ml bottles, case of 24.
